The power and resources of a strong national network are not just the domain of multinational corporations. CPAmerica International is not a national firm. Instead, it is one of the world's largest networks of independent CPA firms. It might surprise you that through our firm's affiliation with CPAmerica, we are able to offer you comparable services to anything a national firm can offer...and often more.

The firms of CPAmerica are ethics-driven, local firms that have significant presence in their communities. They're on a first-name basis with their clients. They pride themselves on providing honesty, hard work, solutions that make sense, and caring service.

The clients of CPAmerica firms receive the best of both worlds – the regional knowledge and sincere concern of a local firm coupled with the vast resources and experience of a progressive worldwide network. As a member of one of the largest networks of CPA firms in the world, our firm has instant online access to the expertise and resources of nearly 2,000 CPAs at more than 70 large, independent firms across America. In addition, we have the ability to network with 10,000 CPAs and consultants around the world through CPAmerica's strategic alliance with the Horwath International network. A unique and very close relationship exists among the member firms of CPAmerica International. This relationship affords us the service capability of international accounting firms without costly overhead and bureaucracy.

As a young professional, Frankel Zacharia's affiliation with CPAmerica can provide you with a number of exciting opportunities:

- ✓ TRAINING – CPAmerica offers informative training sessions for various levels of audit and tax personnel. These sessions are attended by firms all over the United States, providing you with excellent networking opportunities, as well as the chance to make some new friends. Our staff have attended recent training sessions in Las Vegas, Orlando, Philadelphia, San Antonio, Dallas, and San Francisco.
- ✓ MARKETING – Because we can offer our clients the resources of a large accounting firm while maintaining the quality service of a local accounting firm, CPAmerica is an excellent marketing tool for obtaining new clients.
- ✓ INFORMATION RESOURCES – CPAmerica offers a wide array of information resources to its member firms. Because of its strong network, the answer to almost any question can be obtained through a simple email. The CPAmerica website also offers links to information on specific industries and accounting areas to help resolve complex or technical audit or tax issues or to broaden your own personal knowledge.
